COURSE CONTENT
The program ‘Study Preparatory Year for Immigrants’ is run in collaboration with University of Applied Sciences Heilbronn and Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University. It is aimed at people with a foreign background who possess an accepted university entrance certificate, whose German language skills are at least on B1 level and who would like to study in Germany. The intensive full-time course starts in September with a B2 course and finishes in the following year, completing a C1 course. The course parts end with the language level assessments telc-B2 and telc-C1 Hochschule respectively.
Preparing people to study in Germany also entails imparting key qualifications and cultural aspects aiding studies, later professional routines and life in Germany. As an integral part of the program, this content is dealt with in additional modules.

COURSE OBJECTIVE
The program is aimed at the consolidation of existing language skills as well as the acquisition of profound skills on C1 level in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Additionally, imparting key qualifications and broadening participants’ general knowledge are among the important pillars of the program.

OBLIGATORY ATTENDANCE
There is an obligation to attend at least 85% of the entire course. In the case of absenteeism, aim reserves the right to exclude participants from the course and / or the assessments. For this reason, we kindly ask you to make any appointments not relating to the course (e.g. medical appointments, appointments at the JobCenter) outside course times.

Group of Participants: Adult immigrants in possession of an accepted university entrance certificate and with German language skills at least at B1 level.

Lecturers: aim lecturers’ team

Fee: Courtesy of the Dieter Schwarz Foundation, aim can offer this course free of charge.

Course Date: September until June, approx. 30 teaching units per week (full-time course)

Location: Heilbronn

Contact: Mardjaneh Eghbal I phone 07131 39097-368 I eghbal@aim-akademie.org